A Good Farm for Sale.

The subscriber contemplating a removal from the neighbourhood where he now resides, would dispose of, at private sale, the plantation whereon he now lives, lying in Anne Arundel county, and contiguous to the waters of the Patuxent, being not more than three miles from the village of Queen Anne, and about the same distance from Mount Pleasant Ferry. This plantation is in an excellent neighbourhood, has a competency of excellent timber, rail stuff, &c. and is now under a complete enclosure. There are many delightful springs, and a stream of water on it which has never been known to fail in the driest seasons. The improvements are good and convenient, they consist of a very good dwelling house, stables, corn house, with sheds, two fifty feet tobacco houses, one of which has a shed fifty feet long, together with a good kitchen, and two quarters for negroes. There are upwards of two hundred and eighty acres in this tract. Any person wishing to purchase, can view the place, which will be shown by the subscriber. The terms will be made known.

RICHARD ELLIOTT,
June 15.

Public Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of the state of Maryland, the subscriber will offer at public sale, on MONDAY the 11th day of September next, at Isaac Holland's Tavern, known as the half-way house on the road leading from Annapolis to Baltimore.

A Tract of Land

In Anne Arundel county, situated near the aforesaid Tavern. This property was lately in the possession of Francis Osborn, and is now occupied by the heirs of said Osborn, from whom every information in relation to its quality may be obtained. It contains eight hundred acres, the greater part of which is heavily timbered. There are distinct improvements on different parts of the tract, which render it susceptible of an easy division in separate farms, with comfortable accommodations on each.

The terms of payment are six, twelve, eighteen, and twenty-four months; the purchase money to be secured by bonds with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale. Sale to commence at twelve o'clock.

W. M. Worthington.

50 Dollars Reward.

Ranaway on the 30th of July 1826, from the subscriber, residing on Greenberry's Point, near the city of Annapolis, Anne Arundel county, and state of Maryland, a negro woman named MARY, about five feet 4 or 5 inches high, a dark mulatto. She has a wildish look when spoken to, and answers quick; the outside fingers and one of her hands, are somewhat drawn in, occasioned by a sore. She has a large welt between her shoulders. She took with her, her infant female child, which is about twelve months old. The above woman it is supposed has gone to Baltimore, having a mother, a free woman, residing in that place. The above reward will be given to any person who will deliver her, and her child, to me, if taken out of the county aforesaid, and twenty-five dollars if taken in the county.

DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND

PUBLISHED

By Subscription.

THE DECISIONS OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.

These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty-five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS:

The price of each number of the Reports will be $1 25, payable on delivery.

Subscribers for the above Works are requested to send their orders to GEORGE SHAW'S Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this state.

FOR JIM, NO MATTER WHERE TAKEN.

Ran away from the subscriber near the Governor's Bridge, Prince George's county, Maryland, on the 24th of March last, a Negro Man named JIM, about 40 years of age, his complexion not very dark, of ordinary height, but uncommonly large and broad across the back and shoulders, very bowlegged, by which he may be known, limps a little in his walk, has an old scar near one of his eyes, his clothing was a suit of white domestic kersey, and one of dark woollen cloth, but no doubt has a variety. Jim's father, if alive, lives with Mr. Joseph N. Stockett, near South River Church, and he has brothers and other connections belonging to Mr. Casaway, Knighton, and I have no doubt but Jim is lurking thereabouts, or somewhere between South and Patuxent rivers, or he may possibly make for some fishing landing, or some of the waters at this season of the year, and there hide himself. All persons are hereby warned not to harbour or employ said fellow. Gaston Tyler,
P. S. Jim's wife, if now living on the farm of the late Judge Casaway, known by the name of White's Landing, on Patuxent, opposite Lower Marlborough, and it is probable Jim is lurking about there, or in Calvert county.

Richard Harwood of Town Henry Harwood, Joseph Harwood, and others, sons of the heirs of Benjamin Harwood, vs.

Benjamin Harwood, Margaret Harwood, Anne Elizabeth Williams, and others, the residuary heirs of Benjamin Harwood.

The object of the bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of the late Benjamin Harwood of the city of Annapolis. The bill states that the said Benjamin Harwood died intestate, and seized in fee sundry tracts and lots of land, Anne Arundel and Allegany counties, that he left no issue; that the complainants and defendants are children and descendants of the said Benjamin Harwood (all of whom are dead), and his heirs at law. But that owing to the numerous persons entitled, and the infancy of some of them, no sale can be made without the interposition of this court. The bill further states, that the following defendants named in the bill, to wit: Benjamin Harwood, Margaret Harwood, Anne Elizabeth Williams, William Belt Harwood, Mary G. Harwood, Maria Louisa Harwood, Samuel Middleton Harwood, Mary Eleanor Harwood, Carolina Virginia Harwood, Mary Harwood, Ellen Harwood, and Levin Harwood live out of the state of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered and adjudged, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once in each of three successive weeks, before the 15th day of September next, give notice to the said nonresident defendants, to be and appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, on or before the 15th day of January next, to shew cause, if any they have, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed.
